

Workshop Staff

At this clinic you will learn from Nomar himself along with the area's finest advanced hitting staff. Our hitting coaches for this clinic are handpicked to ensure that your high school athlete is learning what he needs to get to the next level.

Past years coaching staff included coaches from:

- Bentley University
- Rhode Island College
- Bryant University
- Rollins College
- College of the Holy Cross
- Stonehill College
- Harvard University
- Tufts University

And many more!

★ Nomar Garciaparra – Guest Hitting Instructor

In college, Nomar Garciaparra was a two-time First Team All-American shortstop at Georgia Tech. The shortstop was drafted in the first round of the 1994 MLB amateur player draft by the Boston Red Sox. He made his Major League debut on August 31, 1996 against the Oakland Athletics. In 1997, Nomar won both the Rookie of the Year and the Silver Slugger award after hitting 30 home runs and driving in 98. Nomar won consecutive batting titles in 1999 and 2000, hitting .357 and .372, respectively. During the 1999 season, Nomar hit two grand slams in one game against the Seattle Mariners on May 10th. After two solid seasons in 2002 and 2003 with the Red Sox, Nomar found himself at the center of a trade that sent him to the Chicago Cubs in 2004. From 2004 – 2008, Nomar played for the Chicago Cubs, L.A. Dodgers, and the Oakland Athletics, winning Comeback Player of the Year in 2006 with the Dodgers. Nomar is a six-time MLB All-Star, and one of the greatest players in Red Sox history.

★ Paul Rappoli – Owner/Lead Instructor

Paul attended Xaverian Brothers High School in Westwood, MA where he was a Boston Globe All-Scholastic in 1989. He spent 1989-1997 as a member of the Boston Red Sox organization. In 1994 Paul played in the Arizona Fall League where he was teammates with basketball superstar Michael Jordan as well as Red Sox superstar Nomar Garciaparra. Paul served as Executive Vice President & General Manager of the Hit Dog Training Center from 1999-2003. He is currently President of Rappoli Baseball, Inc., "RBI", a company dedicated to teaching young people of all ages the proper fundamentals of baseball while stressing the importance of individual responsibility, teamwork, and a positive attitude towards everyday life. Paul is the Director of the Trot Nixon and Jason Varitek Baseball Camps and Clinics, and also serves as an associate scout for the Boston Red Sox. Paul currently resides in Foxboro, MA with his wife Hope, his sons Reece and Nolan, and his daughter Dylan.

FEBRUARY 22-24, 2012

This high school players advanced clinic will be directed by RBI's lead hitting instructor and owner Paul Rappoli. Nomar Garciaparra will be working with each player in this clinic individually throughout the week. Paul, Nomar and their college coaching level staff will be taking players through drills, simulated game situations, and hitting lectures over the nine hours of this workshop.

Paul, Nomar, and their staff will look to provide hitters with an expansive and in-depth look at advanced hitting techniques. This is an intensive and hands-on hitting program that will jump start each player's off-season training schedule.

This clinic is for high school players only who are looking to start or continue their off-season hitting programs. The program will be broken up by grade to ensure proper instruction. Availability in this clinic is EXTREMELY limited so reserve your spot today!

Come join Paul Rappoli and the elite staff at RBI Baseball Academy over this long week to learn advanced hitting techniques such as:

- How to hit for both average AND power
- How to hit off-speed pitches
- Situational hitting
- Dealing with success and failure at the plate
- Working the count
- Hitting with a "Team" mentality
- Adapting your swing to a higher level of play

As always, we will ensure that you have the proper fundamentals in order to accomplish your advanced goals, but be prepared to learn the methods of hitting that will help you get to the next level.

SEE YOU ON FEBRUARY 22nd!
